Powderly's Term Up, But it is Not Expected He Will Retire.

One of the Most Important Things to Be Considered Will Be the Question of Restricting Immigration—It Will Be Opposed by the Knights.

St. Louis, Nov. 15 .- The general assembly, K. of L., meets at Workmen's hall in annual convention Tuesday morning. Only a minority of the members have as yet arrived. John Devlin, of the executive board, said Monday that among the most important things to be considered by the convention will be the question of restricting immigration. "I presume," he said, "that if anything is decided upon, it will be in the form of resolutions declaring against unrestricted immigration, and making opposition to it one of the principles of the order. The K. of L. every-it may lead to national legislation to keep out the pauper classes of Europe.' Speaking of the report that Mr. Powderly intends to resign as grand master workmen, General Worthy Foreman Hugh Cavanaugh stated Monday night that, as his term of office had not expired, he could not resign. As to a refusal to serve again in the same capacity, Mr. Cavanaugh and other officials who are in the city declare there it no ground for believing he will take

General Master Workman Powderly reached the city late Monday evening. He refused to talk with the reporter of the Associated Press regarding the report that he intended not to accept another term of his present office. General Secretary Hayes, however, said to the reporter: "I have talked with Mr. Powderly, and he assures me he will not leave us, and that all reports to the contrary are untrue."

SEVEN GOT AWAY.

A Jail Delivery at Laporte, Ind., Discovered Too Late.

LAPORTE, Ind., Nov. 15 .- A big jail delivery took place here Monday evening by which seven notorious criminals secured their liberty. They removed several iron bars from a window on the lower floor of the county jail, which afforded them an easy escape. Four other prisoners confined on the same floor refused to take advantage of the opportunity afforded them to escape. One of the men was seen, as he dropped from the window, by a female employed at the jail, who promptly gave the alarm. A large force was hastily organized for pursuit, and the surrounding country is being thoroughly searched. One of the escaped men recently served a prison term for murder, and is wanted for an attempt to kill a guard at the northern prison. Two are wanted for burglary; two for grand larceny, one for horsestealing and one for forgery.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 15 .- The official returns from 85 counties in the state give the total people's party vote as 30,949 and the prohibitionists 11,627. The remaining seven counties will not materially increase these totals. In 1888 the populists polled 17,354 for secretary of state and the pro-hibitionists 13,006. The official returns verify the report previously sent out that the democracy, in joint ballot in the general assembly, will have 98 votes and the republicans 52. In the senate the vote will stand 35 to 15, and in the house 63 to 37 on party questions. The returns from all the counties in the state show a democratic plurality of the steamer La Bourgogne from Havre, was a well-built, broad-shouldered man in fashionable attire, whose particularly upright bearing attracted the attention of Special Customs Inspectors Brown and Donovan. On examining him more closely Inspector Donovan noticed something larger than a button bulging out at the back of his tightly fitting fall overcoat. He was taken into the examination room, and despite his indignant protest was obliged to remove his clothing. Then it was found that he wore about his body something that was a cross between a woman's corset and a life preserver. In it were pockets containing sixty-eight valuable gold watches. The watches were seized, and the man was locked up in the Ludlow street jail. His name is Louis Marke, and he is a resident of some town in Washington, where, it is believed, he keeps a jewelry store. The watches found on him are valued at $13,600. The prisoner, when arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Shields, said that his name was Louis Marbet, and that he was a baker, and had lived for several years in Seattle. He went to Switzerland in July last, and bought the watches there, he said, for $300. He was held for examination in default of $2,500 bail.

AN ELECTION WAGER.

Ate a Live flat in the Presence of a Large Crowd at Parkersburg.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Nov. 15 .- Several weeks since two prominent citizens, Capt. W. P. Mooney and Joseph Mc-Cabe, both of Dobbins, this state, who were excellent friends, but of different political views, made an agreement that should Harrison be elected the democrat should eat a live rat in the town hall, and should Cleveland beat Harrison the republican was to accomplish that feat. As the returns came in it could be plainly seen that both parties were laboring under great excitement, and on Thursday it was announced that Mr. Mooney, the erepublican, would have to eat the rat. The hour appointed was 7 o'clock the next evening. The rat, a large one, had been caught some time before and had been well cared for, and was in good condition.

Mooney found that he couldn't bolt the raw material and begged his opponent to let up, but he would not, agreeing, however, that it might be cooked. Promptly at the hour the hall was packed and jammed with people, and shortly afterward the rat was brought in, cooked to a nicety. Mooney succeeded in eating the rodent but didn't pick the bones.
